Downloadable Registration Form available at www.lostdutchmankennelclub.org under Events

Location. Arizona State Fairgrounds, Veterans Memorial Coliseum, 1826 W McDowell Rd, Phoenix, AZ 85007 under the Heart of the Desert Classic Dog Show Cluster (Sahuaro State Kennel Club and Lost Dutchman Kennel Club); www.onofrio.com. The ADJE classroom is located in the northeast corner of the Coliseum floor. Enter through the front of the Coliseum and follow directional signs to the classroom.

Parking. There is ample parking at the Arizona State Fairgrounds accessed via Montevista Avenue off 19th Avenue. The daily fee is $8.00 per car. Consult the Heart of the Desert Classic Cluster (Sahuaro State Kennel Club and Lost Dutchman Kennel Club) Premium at www.onofrio.com for details on a multi-day discount.

Lodging. The Cluster has extended an invitation for ADJE participants to lodge at the Cluster's host hotel and receive the Cluster's negotiated room rate (approximately $149/night plus taxes). You must contact ADJE by December 1, 2019, to have your name placed on the approved list before the hotel will accept your reservation. The host hotel does not accept pets. For other lodging in the area, consult the Cluster Premium, www.onofrio.com.

The Cluster provides a shuttle from the host hotel and has also extended an invitation for participants who stay at the host hotel to ride the shuttle with judges. The shuttle leaves the hotel at 7:00 a.m. and returns about one-half hour after Best in Show. It is important that once you make a reservation to utilize the Shuttle that you follow through and ride the Shuttle. The Cluster pays for these buses and no-shows cost the Cluster just as though the person was there to ride.

Food. There are various food vendors at the Cluster site with food available for breakfast and lunch. There are no restrictions if you prefer to bring your own food. The area east of the Fairgrounds has multiple eateries but it is not within easy walking distance.

ADJE participants who are not exhibiting at the Cluster may dine in the Judges Hospitality Dining Room. The cost of that meal (which is the actual cost paid by ADJE) is $21.00 and must be reserved in advance (emails will be sent out asking for reservations).

Social Media and Announcements. Information about the Cluster and ADJE can be found on the following Facebook pages: Lost Dutchman Kennel Club; Heart of the Desert Cluster; and, Arizona Dog Judges Education. Sahuaro State Kennel Club will have information posted on their website, www.sahuarostatekennelclub.com as will Lost Dutchman Kennel Club, www.lostdutchmankennelclub.org. Information about the Cluster is at www.onofrio.com.

Ringside Observation. ADJE will be providing some Scheduled Ringside Observations throughout the weekend. A list will be published and available at the Cluster/Club Information Desk in the Coliseum.

Tourism. As you make your plans for visiting the Valley of the Sun, I'd like to suggest that you check out the Arizona Official State Visitor's Guide available at no charge by submitting a form at:

<https://www.visitarizona.com/visitors-guide>

The hard copy packet includes a full sized Arizona state map and takes 7-10 days to be delivered. If you have questions about travelling within Arizona, there are Arizona travel counselors available at (866) 275-5816.

The Mission of Arizona Dog Judges Education, Inc. (ADJE) is to promote the sport of purebred dogs through education. The non-profit organization, incorporated in Arizona, coordinates and conducts educational seminars, workshops and other events that support American Kennel Club Inc. judges, exhibitors and members of the public interested in the sport of purebred dogs in breed, conformation and performance education. ADJE promotes an environment of sportsmanship at American Kennel Club events and sponsors, hosts and/or participates in events and activities that advance the sport of purebred dogs and responsible dog ownership. ADJE Seminars and Workshops are open to prospective judges, breeders and exhibitors.
